

UMANG

Open Mic Event (Dec5, 2023)

On December 5th, JUIT campus witnessed extravaganza of knowledge exchange, sharing of thoughts about gender sensitivity and equity along with flavours of cultural program organised by the Omega Leo Club Wagnaghat and Gender Champions Club collaborated to present the captivating open mic event, "Umang." This event stood as a testament to the diverse talents and artistic fervour with dissemination of message about social concerns on respecting human irrespective of gender and invokes the spirit of fair treatment with sensitivity towards gender equality and thriving within the student community at JUIT.

The core aim of "Umang" was to provide a vibrant platform for JUIT students, encouraging them to unfurl their talents and communicate their thoughts through various artistic mediums. Under the insightful guidance of esteemed faculty coordinators Dr. Hemant Sood, Dr. Nancy Singla, and Mr. Chandra Pal Gautam, the event was meticulously planned and seamlessly executed. Team of students from Omega Leo Club and Gender Champions created enthusiastic ambience for igniting the spirit of the event by transferring their thoughts on gender sensitivity ,equality and equity to the audience .

The evening unfolded with a kaleidoscope of artistic expressions. From soul-stirring poetry recitations that echoed sentiments to melodious musical performances that resonated with emotions, the event encapsulated the essence of artistic diversity. Additionally, engaging shayari, enlightening speeches on 'Gender Sensitization' and 'Ethical Code of Conduct,' and rib-tickling stand-up comedy acts added layers of depth and entertainment to the event. The presence of Prof. Rajendra Kumar Sharma, the Vice Chancellor of JUIT, added a distinguished aura to the occasion.

Over twenty enthusiastic participants graced the stage, showcasing their talents and confidence with sheer dedication. To honor excellence, awards were conferred in categories such as singing, shayari, stand-up comedy, and speech delivery, recognizing and appreciating the outstanding performances.

The resonating success of the Umang Open Mic Event left an enduring impression on all attendees. Beyond merely showcasing the extraordinary talents of JUIT students, it served as a catalyst, inspiring active participation and fostering a community that values artistic expression with transcending message about social concerns and their solutions. In essence, the Umang Open Mic Event transcended its purpose, becoming a vibrant celebration of creativity, talent, and communal spirit, leaving an indelible mark on the cultural landscape of JUIT.

