ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

Biostatistics has become a defined branch of science that uses an intricate combination of Statistics, Probability, Mathematics and Computation to model and solve real life problems in biological and biomedical sciences. As a discipline designed to yield information, biostatistics may also be considered as a highly-developed stream which in turn forms part of the developing and expanding field of bioinformatics. Consequently, biostatistics draws quantitative methods from fields including statistics, operations research, economics, and mathematics in general; and it is applied to research questions in fields such as public health (including epidemiology, nutrition, environmental health, and health services research), genomics, proteomics, population genetics, medicine, and ecology. Research in medicine and public health has been both a beneficiary of this new methodology and a source of new problems. It is anticipated that this workshop will help the biologists, biotechnologists, biomedical scientists and students from all these streams to gain insight into statistical analyses. It will also help engineers, mathematicians, statisticians, computer scientists to explore new dimensions for their academic and research activities.

About JUIT

JUIT is spread over 25 acres of lush green picturesque slopes of Wagnaghat, in district Solan of Himachal Pradesh, creating a tranquil environment that can heighten the spirit and energy level of all learners and inspire them to optimize their learning efforts.

JUIT Wagnaghat is midway between Shimla & Solan. Shimla is 24 Kms from the campus. Kalka is the nearest broadgauge railway station. Wagnaghat is very well connected with buses from Delhi, UP, Haryana, Punjab, Rajasthan and Chandigarh/Kalka.

About the Department

The Department of Electronics and Communication Engineering was established in the year 2002 with undergraduate program. Subsequently, M.Tech and Ph.D programs were started by the department. The department is playing a vital role in producing competent engineers of highest caliber with emphasis on technical skills, critical thinking and problem-solving. The department has highly motivated and learned faculty who are research oriented and working on cutting edge technologies. The faculty of the department is actively involved in research areas namely Signal & Image Processing, Embedded System and VLSI, RF and Microwave Antenna, Communication and Networking, and Automation and Control to focus on research in advanced trends and applications in these fields. The department has produced 23 doctorates and currently 18 research scholars are working in different research areas.

Objective of the Workshop

Image Processing finds its application in the areas such as biomedical engineering, forensic science, remote sensing, agriculture, and many more. Due to very wide area of applications, it attracts students, researchers, educators and industrialist from different background like Electronics and Communication Engineering, Computer Science Engineering, Biotechnology and Bioinformatics Engineering and others. This workshop will help the participants working or intend to work in the area of biomedical engineering, forensic analysis, remote sensing, telemedicine, etc. It will help the participants to explore new dimensions for their academic and research activities.

The objectives of the workshop are:

- To provide knowledge on the recent developments in the areas of biomedical engineering, forensic analysis, remote sensing images and telemedicine
- To provide hands-on practice on image processing and analysis of biomedical images using MATLAB
- To make aware participants about the requirements of industries on Image Processing
- To make aware participants about the requirement of software tools for analysing medical images

Department of Civil Engineering

The Department offers four-year undergraduate programme (B.Tech), and two-year post-graduate programmes (M.Tech) in the three specializations—Structural Engineering, Environmental Engineering, and Construction Management. The curricula at both the levels have been designed keeping in view the emerging industrial and practical needs of the Civil Engineering field with an emphasis on use of computational tools. Some selected students of B.Tech complete their final semester at University of Florida (UF), USA as per MoU between JUIT and UF. The Department also runs an active PhD programme. Ample research facilities including library with the latest journals, laboratories with modern equipments and software tools are provided.

About the Program

Jaypee University of Information Technology, Waknaghat has been practicing innovating teaching practices to attain its mission of being committed to excellence in engineering education, research and teaching methods, and establishing a presence in emerging segments of engineering education. In this endeavour, JUIT is organising a one-week continuing education program to providing research and teaching skill enhancement for fellow faculty of technical institution in India and to bridge the gap in quality research and teaching skills that are required in contemporary engineering education in India.

About the Programme

India with over 1 billion population is rapidly emerging as superpower and set itself the target of becoming a developed nation in the forthcoming years. Many of the environmental challenges caused by the improper waste disposal practice in developing countries like India results in producing huge quantities of green house gas emissions. The resulting effect on climate change can be felt world over. Therefore the waste management has now become a matter of great concern. The present FDP aims at to discuss suitable techniques to ameliorate the environment load from the huge amount of residual generated by industrial development and consumption lifestyle.
