

---

National Service Scheme (NSS)

Mass Singing of VandeMatram Commemoration of 150 Years of VandeMatram 7th November 2025

On November 7th, 2025, NSS unit of Jaypee University of Information Technology organized a special event to celebrate the 150th anniversary of "Vande Mataram," a patriotic song written by Bankim Chandra Chattopadhyay in 1875. The occasion aimed to honor the song's significance in India's history and to inspire a collective sense of national pride among students. The event was a heartfelt tribute to the legacy of the song and its role in uniting Indians in their fight for independence.

The highlight of the event was students singing "Vande Mataram" together in a spontaneous and unrehearsed manner. Despite the lack of prior practice, the students managed to create a powerful and patriotic atmosphere, emphasizing the song's emotional and unifying impact. This celebration successfully rekindled patriotic fervor among attendees and emphasized the enduring importance of "Vande Mataram" in fostering national unity. The event demonstrated that even without extensive rehearsals, genuine patriotism and collective spirit can create a memorable and inspiring experience. Overall, the event was a proud moment for JUIT, paying fitting tribute to the 150th anniversary of this iconic patriotic song.

IGNITED MINDS
INSPIRED SOULS

