compliance, and inclusive leadership. A total of 85 students and faculty participated in the session

The programme was graced by Prof. (Dr.) R. K. Sharma, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, JUIT, who addressed the participants and appreciated the efforts of TIEDC and IIC in promoting entrepreneurship on campus. He encouraged students to think innovatively, act responsibly, and make the best use of the University's incubation and innovation ecosystem to transform their ideas into impactful ventures.

Prof. (Dr.) Ashish Kumar, Nodal Officer, TIEDC, welcomed the dignitaries, faculty members, and students. In his address, he emphasized that innovation alone is not enough to build a successful startup; entrepreneurs must also understand the legal framework and uphold ethical values to create sustainable and responsible businesses. He engaged the session on Start-up Legal & Ethical Steps, where he discussed the key legal and ethical considerations involved in launching a startup. He explained the importance of selecting an appropriate business structure, protecting intellectual property, complying with statutory regulations, maintaining transparency in business operations, and fostering ethical leadership. Through practical examples, he highlighted how legal awareness and ethical decision-making help build credibility and long-term success.

Ms. Deepali Gulati, Empowerment Coach, Corporate Trainer, and Women Entrepreneur, spoke passionately about Women Empowerment. Drawing from her personal and professional experiences, she encouraged students, especially young women, to believe in their abilities, embrace leadership roles, and confidently pursue entrepreneurial opportunities. She emphasized that resilience, continuous learning, and self-confidence are essential qualities for overcoming challenges and achieving success. The event was also attended by Dr. Tirtha Raj, Associate Dean (Innovation), JUIT, and Dr. Saurabh Srivastava, Professor, Department of Mathematics and Member, Institution's Innovation Council (IIC), whose presence motivated the participants and reflected the University's commitment to fostering innovation and entrepreneurship.

The session concluded with an interactive discussion, during which students actively engaged with the speakers and sought guidance on startup registration, intellectual property protection, ethical business practices, and entrepreneurial opportunities. The programme was highly informative and inspiring, leaving participants with a deeper understanding of responsible entrepreneurship and the confidence to pursue innovative ideas with integrity and social responsibility.

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks by Prof. (Dr.) Ashish Kumar, who expressed his gratitude to Ms. Deepali Gulati, Prof. (Dr.) R. K. Sharma, the distinguished guests, faculty members, students, and the organizing teams of TIEDC and IIC for their valuable support and enthusiastic participation, making the event a meaningful and successful learning experience.
