Report on Koshish Kit Distribution

Date: 19th February 2026

Venue: CR 10

Introduction:

The Koshish Club organized a Koshish Kit and T-shirt Distribution on 19th February 2026 at CR 10. The initiative aimed to support underprivileged students by providing them with essential study materials and encouraging their academic development. The event was further enriched by the presence of Prof. Dr. Vivek Seghal, who joined the distribution.

Objective:

The objective of the event was to distribute essential study kits to students and motivate them to focus on their education. The initiative also aimed to encourage regular study habits and promote the importance of education among the children.

Event Details:

- Each student was provided with a Koshish Kit consisting of a school bag, water bottle, stationery kit, and a chocolate.
- Prof. Dr. Vivek Seghal graced the event and participated in the distribution of the kits.
- Students were guided about the importance of education and encouraged to stay motivated towards their studies.
- The distribution was carried out smoothly with active participation from the volunteers.
