Report on Donation Drive at Shanti Niketan

Date: 15th March 2026

Venue: Shanti Niketan Children's Home, Subathu, Solan

Introduction:

The Koshish Club organized a visit to Shanti Niketan Children's Home in Subathu, Solan, as a follow-up initiative to the Colors of Giving 2026 donation drive. The visit aimed to distribute the collected items to the children and extend support to the institution. Professor Hemant Sood (Faculty Coordinator) along with team members coordinated and organized the whole event. The initiative reflected the club's commitment to community welfare and social responsibility.

Objective:

The objective of the visit was to donate the materials collected during the donation drive to the children's home and to interact with the students, motivating them to focus on their education and personal growth.

Event Details:

- The team of Koshish Club visited Shanti Niketan and handed over all the collected items from the Colors of Giving 2026 drive to the management.
- The donated materials included money, clothes, stationery, books, shoes, and other essential items.
- Volunteers interacted with the children and organized fun activities and games to engage them.
- The team also motivated the students to study hard and encouraged them to work towards a successful future.
- The visit was well-coordinated and created a positive and friendly environment for the children.
