Anti-Ragging Awareness Session on August 13, 2025

The Department of BT and BI and Gender Champions Club organized a session with first year students for providing awareness against “Anti-Ragging ” on 13th August 2025. Anti-ragging awareness aims to eradicate the harmful practice of ragging in educational institutions. Ragging, defined as any act that disrupts, intimidates, or causes physical or psychological harm to a student, is strictly prohibited. It's a serious offense with severe consequences, including legal action and expulsion. Professor Jata Shankar provided awareness and educating students about the negative impacts of ragging, promoting a culture of respect and inclusion, and encouraging reporting of any instances of ragging at the different point of contacts available in the university like Anti-ragging committee and Anti-ragging squad. Professor Hemant Sood sensitized the students about its impact and misuse of these laws under certain circumstances. She apprised the students to help their fellowbeings and be compassionate towards one another. The event was coordinated by Prof. Jata Shankar(HoD) and Professor Hemant Sood.
