Report on motivating parents for participating in Koshish Club

Date: 7th November 2025
Venue: Houses near Laundry

Introduction:

A parent-interaction visit was organized to meet the families of students living near the laundry area. The purpose of this initiative was to strengthen communication between the organizing team and the parents, and to encourage regular attendance of students in the classes being conducted.

Objective:

The primary objective of the visit was to motivate parents to send their children consistently to the classes. By discussing their concerns and explaining the benefits of active participation, the team aimed to improve student involvement and overall engagement.

Meeting Details:

The primary objective of the visit was to motivate parents to send their children consistently to the classes. By discussing their concerns and explaining the benefits of active participation, the team aimed to improve student involvement and overall engagement. The visit was carried out by Coordinator and members of the club. The members who participated in this visit were Kunal Bhan, Abhishek Chopra, Jigyash Shukla and Kushagra Gupta.

Event Highlights:

• Parents were informed about the importance of regular class attendance.
• Student's progress and participation levels were discussed with families.
• Parents shared their feedback, concerns, and suggestions with the visiting team.
• The interaction helped build trust and strengthened communication between the organizers and parents.
• Overall, the response from parents was positive and supportive.

Conclusion:

The parent visit served as an effective step toward improving student engagement and attendance. By establishing clear communication with families, the team helped create a stronger connection that will benefit future activities and class participation.

koshish
Event Highlights