Special Session on “Integrating Image Processing with learning algorithms and analytics.”

Special Session Chair: Dr. Shaily Jain, Professor, Chitkara University, Punjab, Senior member of IEEE

Email ID: shaily.jain@chitkara.edu.in

Co-Session Chair:-Dr. Mukesh Kumar, Assistant Professor, School of computer applications, LPU, Jalandhar.

Email ID: Mukesh.27406@lpu.co.in

Objective:

In order to debate and present the most recent developments, difficulties, and innovations in the field of Image processing, machine learning and Data Analytics. The purpose of the special session is to offer a forum for the discussion, cooperation, and sharing of information amongst professionals working on various parts of these allied fields that are data-driven.

Unpublished, original contributions are encouraged for submission with less than 15% of similarity score from all sources and less than 5% similarity score from single source.

Subtopics : (But not limited to that)

1. Deep Learning for image processing
 - Recent trends in Medical Imaging and Analysis
 - Emerging Trends in Image Processing and Learning
 - Image Processing for the Metaverse
 - Image Processing for Decision-Making
2. Visual Sentiment Analysis and Emotion Recognition
 - Emotion and sentiment analysis
 - Emotion detection and sentiment analysis
 - Text emotion detection with machine learning
 - Emotion detection through text
 - Visual textual sentiment analysis

3. Image processing with data analytics
 - Image recognition and analysis
 - Visual analytics approached for image recognition
 - Visualization of image processing

Submission Guidelines:

Authors are invited to submit original research papers, review articles, and case studies related to the above sub-topics. Submissions should adhere to the IEEE conference paper format. All submitted papers will undergo a peer-review process by experts in the field. Accepted papers will be presented at the special session during the conference.

Submission Link

Submission ID through EDAS should be shared at { shaily.jain@chitkara.edu.in } with Subject Line : ICIP-2023 Special Session Paper "IIPLAA"

Authors must ensure that their manuscript is following Manuscript Preparation Guidelines and can submit MAXIMUM of 2 papers to ICIP 2023 using the EDAS Submission link: <https://edas.info/N31251>.

Authors can use MS Word A4 or LaTeX template for preparing their manuscript and check the PDF for compliance within EDAS conference system and for its further submission.
