National Cadet Corps

Name of the Activity: FIRING SESSION

Date: 17th May 2025

Place: Solan

Introduction

We, cadets of NCC from Jaypee University of Information Technology, Solan, had the privilege of participating in a firing session organized on 17 May 2025 by 1 HP Boys Battalion, Solan. A total of 17 cadets attended the session, which was a significant part of our military training and discipline development. This training was conducted under the capable supervision of our Associate NCC Officer (ANO) Lt. Dr. Amit Jakhar and Retired SM Jai Lal Thakur, both of whom guided us throughout the exercise with dedication and precision.

Program Highlights

- The session started with a thorough safety briefing, covering firearm handling, range discipline, and standard operating procedures.
- Cadets received hands-on training with the .22 rifle, learning about its mechanics, shooting posture, sight alignment, and breathing techniques.
- Each cadet was given multiple chances to perform live firing under close supervision, ensuring safety and skill development.
- Instructors provided individual feedback after each firing round, helping cadets correct their technique and improve accuracy.
- Retd. Sub Major Jai Lal Thakur shared valuable insights from his military experience, enriching the session with practical tips and motivational guidance.
- The session significantly boosted cadets' confidence, focus, and discipline while providing an engaging and safe introduction to live weapon training.

Conclusion

In conclusion, the firing session was a highly enriching and disciplined experience that contributed immensely to our NCC training. We express our heartfelt gratitude to 1 HP Boys Battalion for organizing this event and to Lt. Dr. Amit Jakhar and Retd. Sub Major Jai Lal Thakur for their mentorship. Such exercises play a vital role in developing both physical and mental resilience in cadets, preparing us for future challenges as responsible and disciplined citizens.
