National Cadet Corps

Name of the Activity: FIRING SESSION

Date: 11th January 2025

Place: Solan

On 11th January 2025, a firing session was conducted at the 1 HP NCC UNIT NCC Solan. The session aimed to provide cadets with hands-on training in firing, helping them develop confidence and accuracy in handling firearms. The event was well-organized and conducted under the supervision of experienced PI Staff.

The cadets left the university at 6:30 am in the morning and were also greeted and motivated by the registrar sir, Brigadier RK Sharma, SM (retd.). With great enthusiasm, cadets arrived at the unit base in Solan at 7:30 am.

The cadets helped with setting up the range and the session began with a safety briefing where cadets were instructed on the proper handling of firearms and the importance of discipline. Each cadet got the opportunity to practice firing under controlled conditions, focusing on accuracy and technique. The PI Staff provided individual guidance, correcting postures and offering useful tips to improve shooting skills.

Cadets showed great enthusiasm and determination throughout the session. They followed instructions carefully and steadily improved their aim with each round of practice. The structured drills helped them gain confidence and better understand the fundamentals of firing.

The firing session at 1 HP NCC UNIT NCC Solan was a successful and valuable training experience for all cadets. It not only enhanced their firing skills but also reinforced discipline and safety awareness. The session played a key role in preparing them for future training and responsibilities within the NCC.
