“On 21st July, a message was received by E-Mail Dated 25th july this to start a incentive cell to you by the Pro Vice-Chancellor.

(PVC) Mr. Manoj Gaur sir was conveyed to the first-year B.Tech students in CR-3. The message was read out and explained to the students by Ms. Aman (Counselor).

The key aspects were highlighted as Along with the message, Mr. Manoj Gaur Sir his own experiences from his hostel life, illustrating how every student goes through a phase of challenges in life. By facing these challenges, we can become responsible citizens for our families, society, and the nation. This beautiful life given by God is a precious gift, and we must always maintain a vibrant and positive outlook in every situation. We should give wings to our dreams and showcase our talents.

Through his message, Mr. Gaur Sir emphasized that all the members of the university, whether directly or indirectly associated with students, are always ready to guide them. The university has counselors who regularly provide their services. Students are encouraged to share their personal concerns with the counselors to stay free from stress and anxiety. By adapting themselves to the beautiful environment of nature, they can move forward positively toward their life's purpose.

Sir advised the students to always walk the path of truth, honesty, and duty towards themselves and others, so that they can bring pride to themselves, their families, and their educational institution in society.
