The Gender Champions Club JUIT, in collaboration with the Internal Complaints Committee and IICJUITorganised a Gender Sensitization Camp on 16th March at 12:00 noon in order to celebrate the spirit of International Women's Day, which recognizes the strength, achievements, and contributions of women across the world. Professor Hemant Sood opened the session by addressing the gathering by mentioning that The theme for 2026 is "Rights. Justice. Action. For ALL Women and Girls"which reminds us that equality is not just an idea; it is a responsibility that requires awareness, commitment, and action. She mentioned that we should be respectful and sensitive towards all genders. We should follow our dignified code of conduct towards our colleagues and fellows. Dean Academics (Professor Shruti Jain) felicitated the expert Advocate Sheetal Vyas and extended her gratefulness for her gracious presence and motivates the students to follow all these virtues in their lives. .

The objectives of session was :

To sensitize the students about Gender sensitization and provide insights about respecting the roles, rights, and dignity of all genders.

To challenge stereotypes that limit opportunities for women and girls.

To respect laws for their effective enforcement and not to misuse.

Session:

The Guest speaker was Advocate Sheetal Vyas from Shimla High Court talked in details and uprise students about the most powerful tools to achieve gender equality is gender sensitization. She delivered a lecture on Gender Sensitization and Legal Awareness in professional and personal life. While reflecting on this theme, the symbolism of Ardhanarishvara the unified form of Shiva and Parvati came to mind. This powerful image from Indian philosophy shows that the masculine and feminine are complementary to each other. What we discuss today as gender sensitization was symbolically expressed in our tradition thousands of years ago. Our generation should recognize that the idea of gender harmony is not merely a Western concept, but one that has long existed within the depth of Indian philosophical thought. She empowered by mentioning that true gender equality will only be achieved when every girl, regardless of her background, has access to education, safety, opportunities, and justice. Each of us has a role to play in creating this change. By spreading awareness, respecting rights, and supporting one another, we can build a more inclusive and fair society.

On this International Women's Day, let us pledge to promote gender sensitization, spread legal awareness, and stand up for the rights of every woman and girl. She concluded her session by mentioning that Together, let us turn the promise of rights, justice, and action into a reality for all

Conclusion

The session was concluded with vote of thanks and the concluding remarks of Registrar and Dean of students Retd. Brig. RK Sharma where he mentioned that these sessions provide awareness that in our personal lives, gender sensitization starts with simple actions: respecting each other's choices, sharing responsibilities at home, and supporting the dreams of girls and boys equally. Legal awareness empowers women to stand up for themselves, seek justice, and demand equal treatment. It also reminds men of their responsibility to create safe and respectful environments at home, in schools, and in workplaces. At last Prof. Hemant Sood and Prof. Poonam Sharma extended acknowledgements to the expert, faculties, staff and team GCC and ICC along with JUIT administration for their support.
